ALKUSARI STONE

PROVENCE COLLECTION

With a simple, satin-like hand finish and slightly pillowed edges, the stones in this collection are flexible and perfect for any setting. They are sophisticated enough to complement contemporary designs and work equally well with more rustic or traditional environments. There is also a wide tonal range to choose from. White, creamy stones are available alongside black marbles and grey limestones. Hewn into large 20" X 32" pieces, these stones expand and transform any space with their deceptively simple hand finish.
