RE-EDITION COLLECTION

Re-edition is the art of replicating, by hand, the look and feel of reclaimed limestone from chateaus, estates and farmhouses in the countryside of France. We have taken our knowledge of reclaimed material and combined it with raw material from our quarries to create this collection. Our natural stone blocks have been cut and meticulously hand worked to replicate centuries worth of aging and variation. The resulting floors are classic re-editions exuding the same warmth and character that comes from antique material.
